'67 THOMIST

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

ARTS – SCIENCES

Why are we here?

Why does the river flow beneath?

Why do the stars shine above?

The river flows because it seeks to become part of the vast ocean.

The stars shine because they seek to become part of the infinite universe.

We are here because we seek to become part of the immense world of knowledge and ability which moves and radiates about us.

For us, this is the beginning; and it is a very good beginning.

But this is also part of our destination; for even now, we are becoming members of the tremendous constellation of realized potential and perfected beauty.

This is Aquinas College.

This is us.

STOPPING BY WOODS ON A
SNOWY EVENING

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
